

The birth of Happy Healthy Kids

We're thrilled to join the advisory board of Happy Healthy Kids as it kicks off its inaugural season. The new website, pioneered by Editor Kelley King Heyworth, is dedicated to all of us parents who say, "I just want my child to be healthy. And happy." A frequent contributor to Parents Magazine, CNN and Sports Illustrated, King Heyworth brings journalistic expertise to her website to create a kids' health site chock full of nonjudgemental, reassuring posts.

We're currently on her home page with a pediatrician's wish list— check out 5 things we'd love for you to know.
